Countrywide Farmers completes sale of the Countrywide LPG business

Countrywide Farmers plc (“Countrywide” or “the Company”), one of the UK’s leading suppliers of products, services and advice to the rural community, today confirms completion of the sale of the Countrywide LPG business to DCC plc.

The deal, which was first announced on the 11th January 2018, confirms the sale of the LPG business for a total consideration of £28.75m.

Commenting on the deal, Countrywide Chief Executive Julie Wirth said: “We are delighted to have completed the sale of the LPG business which secures the future for the Countrywide LPG business, brand and team. I would like to thank the LPG team for their significant contribution to the business and wish them well for the future. “

The Directors of Countrywide Farmers plc accept full responsibility for this statement
